High Winds Make Low Cards Impossible on Jersey Links; Winners Each Get an 86; McMahon. Dixon and Phillips Tied for Third Place

By Ray McCarthy

LAKEWOOD, N. J., May 5 .- Despite a veritable hurricane which ran riot over the Lakewood Country Club course to-day and a frigid atmosphere which was more suitable for ice skating than for golf, a large number of players turned out for the annual spring tournament. More than four sixteens turned in cards for match play, which starts to-morrow.

In past years a medal winner in this & meeting had to play around in the seventies. But there was no approachng even 80 to-day. Percy Kendall, of the Deal club, and the stocky J. The Lakewood course has been recently reconstructed. It now measures 3,500 yards, and naturally that didn't help anybody to score well. Eddie Styles, of Philadelphia, for instance, who has the reputation of being one of the hardiest golfers in existence, found the going so rough he picked up after struggling more than half the distance.

Joseph G. MeMahon jr., a youngster who has been coming rapidly, was tied for third place. The medal winners were the only ones to break 80. Mc-Mahon, with George Dixon, of the National Links, and C. N. Phillips, of Atlantic City, made a score of 90, an 85 at least in ordinary weather.

N. E. Sprague, of the Inwood Club; Chester Maxwell, of Trenton, and Pierre Proal, of Deal, were next in line with scores of 92 each. The tally of 97 marked the dead line for the first ixteen. Three players-Ellis Adams, of Essex County; J. T. Tunis, of Pinehurst, and Dr. H. V. Garrity, of Asbury Park, were tied at this figure. Youngster Shows Up Well

Slugging Kings Forced to Take Another Rest

Battle Between Giants and Dodgers To Be Resumed To-day if Weather Permits

By Charles A. Taylor

The Home Run League had a holiday yesterday. Rain reigned everywhere n the East. Long George Kelly, the leading smasher of four-baggers, rested peacefully in his trundle bed in town and Babe Ruth, according to special cables from the national capital, emulated his rival and instead of knocking home runs just dreamed about them. It was a most peacoful day baseballi-

It was a most peaceful day baseballically spraking.
Flatbush was disappointed. The valiant rooters who braved the wind of yesterday played havoe with the telephone wires which lead to the Polo Grounds. They sized up Wednesday's overthrow as a big mistake and were set and ready to cheer once more for Uncle Wilbert's troupe no matter how many "Scarrs" the weather carried.

But to-day is another day, and if Mr. Scarr smiles (as he can do sometimes) this terrible bout between the boroughs will be resumed. But bout is the wrong word for what happens when Flatbush meets Manhattan. It's a real fight, not a nine-round bout. Those who shivered through the wind and storm of Wednesday at the Polo Grounds and kept cheering and cheerful despite it all afford 10,000 witnesses to the truth. Smith May Oppose Nehf

Smith May Oppose Nehf

It is expected that Uncle Wilbert will attempt to throw another dart into the pennant hopes of the Giants by sending his sterling southpaw, Sherrod Smith to the mound.

Manager John J. McGraw will doubtless counter with Arthur Nehf, who drew his day's pay in the last set-to of the boroughs by pitching one inning and getting credit for winning the game. But whoever does the hurling there is going to be real action at the Polo Grounds this afternoon.

The announcement that the High Fordham tossed off another ball the sixteen clubs of the major leagues from the "bench in order to better manage the sixteen clubs of the major leagues from the "bench" meets with the general approval of fandom.

Pirates Set Dizzy Pace

The Pirates are in the van in the race for the National League pennant and if Uncle Wilbert or John J. Mc-Thirteen Maroon players left on base during the course of the contest George Gibson.

Graw believes he is going to romp away with the big flag they may have to explain the whys and wherefores to George Gibson.

A "reader" takes exception to the story in last Tuesday's Tribune to the effect that Cactus Cravath holds the major league record for home runs. Mr. Reader insists that one Sam Thompson, of the Detroit and Philadelphia Nationals, is the real home run king with 120 to his credit as gasingt king, with 120 to his credit, as against the 117 of Cravath.

Babe Ruth and Long George Kelly are studying the archives of baseball to check up on this Tribune "reader." The vote will be announced later.
